“Over the years, we’ve booked many corporate events for ourselves and our clients and Kelli was hands down the easiest entertainer to work with. She was quick to respond and confirm, and communication was always easy. Kelli was on time, actually early for load-in and setup, and was a total pro throughout the night. Not only is her talent top-notch, her range of song availability is incredible. I gave a quick demographic description of our crowd and she needed no further direction. 100% will book her again and recommend and refer her to anyone we can!” - Danielle Johnson, Hall Strategies, LLC
