Born and raised in North Alabama, Kelli Johnson was steeped in the rich musical heritage of Country, Bluegrass, Gospel, and Motown. With her rootsy twang, powerhouse vocals and Award-Winning songwriting, Kelli has an innate ability to create music that defies genre boundaries.

Kelli's music has been featured in National Television Commercials, Independent Films, and Recordings by Major Label and Independent Artists alike.

"Home Wasn't Built in a Day", a song she co-wrote with Lance Carpenter and The Voice Season 18 Winner Todd Tilghman was recently performed on the Grand Ole Opry.

As a songwriter, Kelli has written songs with Award winning writers such as Max T. Barnes, Byron Hill, Jerry Salley, Lance Carpenter, Charley Stefl, and Aaron Barker, and with Major artists Craig Campbell, Riley Green, Brittany Spencer, and Drake White.

White's album "The Optimystic" featuring 3 songs co-written with Johnson, debuted #1 on the iTunes County Album Charts! White's album single "Power of A Woman", co-written with Johnson, was also featured in Billboard and People Magazine.

Kelli also penned 3 tunes on The Voice Season 19 finalists Worth The Wait album "Vinyl Revival", as well as dozens of Independent Artists Cuts.

As a performer, Kelli has opened for Sugarland, Restless Heart, Wet Willie, Rodney Crowell, Marty Raybon, and has toured with Grammy Winning Artist John Berry. She has performed on Music City Roots, PBS, APT, The Dugger Mountain Music Hall Show, The Phil Mack International Country Music Show, and was a featured artist on Barry Waldrep's 2021 Tony Rice Tribute Album, alongside Vince Gill, John Berry, Marty Raybon, John Cowan, Emmylou Harris and more!

Kelli resides just outside Nashville, Tn, where she continues to write and perform.
